Maps That Changed The World

Synopsis

From beautifully engraved sixteenth-century Dutch maps to sinister Nazi maps, this stunning compendium features some of the most famous cartography ever created. Stretching back to when explorers feared dropping off the â œedge of the world,â • these 65 examples include Lewis and Clarkâ TMs charting of the American West, the British mapping of India and Australia, and maps that divided up continents among conquerors, marked a countryâ TMs geology, or laid out military campaigns. There are even some â œfantasy maps,â • including one from Lord of the Rings! Organized chronologically, the collection shows the evolution of map-making from all corners of the globe. Â
